THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 16 1863.

By Telegraph.

We are coming somewhat nearer to tidings from Charleston and suppose it may be regarded as settled that a bombardment has at last commenced. For everything, beyond that we are still compelled to possess our souls in patience. The good spirit that seems to pervade our forces, if it does not promise success, at least assures us that they do not regard the gigantic work before them as desperate but are hopeful and defiant. We trust that before this, their hopes have been accomplished to the utmost. We shall soon know. Gen Foster seems to have been in a tight place in North Carolina, though not so very contracted but that it was possible for him to get through. The report is only of the beginning of his work, and we have no doubt that relief sufficient for the emergency was promptly furnished by Gen Hunter.

The Pennsylvania Legislature has been investigating the charges of bribery against Simon Cameron—the old sinner—and it certainly looks as though there was a trifling smell of fire on his garments. He continued to play his old loco foco tricks even in the Republican ranks, and we are not very sorry, if he was guilty, that he was betrayed, though it is very likely that Boyle, who sold Simon so cruelly, is almost as depraved and atrocious in fraud and wickedness as "Old Pottawattamie" himself was in the days when he traded in the famous Indian vouchers.

We observe some post office changes, &c and that the commission of Mr Getchell, Postmaster at Amity, has reached San Francisco.

The New Code.

The new code of practice goes into operation on the first of June. The greater portion of it, relating to the technicalities of practice is of interest only to the lawyers, but there are other portions making a radical change in the administration of law in this State, which are of general interest. We propose briefly to notice some of the most important features.

The most material, and as we think, the most beneficial clause in the whole volume, is that section which removes all objections to the competency of witnesses. If a person in private life wishes to ascertain a fact, he makes his inquiries of those who are supposed to be able to give him the information he requires. If they are negroes he will question negroes; if they are convicts he will question convicts, and if his horse has been stolen he is not apt to inquire whether his neighbor is christian or pagan, orthodox or infidel, before he asks that neighbor which way the thief went. The code recognizes the common sense principles which actuate commonly sensible men in private life, and declares that "All persons without exception, except as otherwise provided in this title, who, having organs of sense can perceive and perceiving can make known their perceptions to others, may be witnesses. Therefore, neither parties, or other persons who have an interest in the result of an action, suit, or proceeding are excluded, nor those who have been convicted of crime, nor persons on account of their opinions on matters of religious belief." Persons of unsound mind and children under ten years of age, under certain circumstances, are declared incompetent, and the confidential relations existing between husband and wife, attorney and client, &c, cannot be broken, but where a party to a suit offers himself as a witness, it is deemed a consent to the examination of his wife, attorney clergyman, physician or surgeon, as to the same subject. Conviction of crime may be shown to affect the credibility of a witness, but not a particular state of religious belief or disbelief. All distinctions of color are disregarded as affecting the competency or credibility of witnesses.

A perusal of the chapter on "Divorce," will occasion groans and heartburnings among that somewhat numerous class of husbands who wish to get rid of their wives, of wives who wish to change husbands, and of husbands and wives who are mutually disgusted with each other. A divorce suit can be maintained only, "when the plaintiff is an inhabitant of this State at the commencement of the suit and has been for one year prior thereto, and when either the marriage contract was solemnized in this State, or the defendant is also an inhabitant thereof and the cause of suit arose in this State or during a removal thereto." Divorce suits against "absent defendants" are expressly prohibited, unless the marriage was solemnized in this State. The causes for which a divorce will be granted are, with two exceptions, the same as at present: the "willful desertion" clause has been extended from one year in the old statute, to three years in the new and the most prolific of all the present statutory causes of divorce, the "voluntary neglect of her husband to provide the wife with a home and the common necessaries of life, for the space of one year," has been cruelly omitted in the new code — An action for divorce must be brought within one year from the time the cause of action accrued. When the alleged cause is adultery, the defendant may show, in bar of the suit, that the plaintiff has been doing likewise. A decree for a divorce may be appealed from within one year and an unkind sentence adds that if either party divorced by a circuit court shall marry before the suit has been determined on appeal, or until the time for appeal shall have expired, he or she shall be deemed guilty of bigamy. But the unkindest cut of all makes the State a party defendant in all divorce suits requires copies of complaint and summons to be served on the prosecuting attorney, gives that officer the control of the defence in all such cases and makes it his duty to make a defence if the defendant fails to do so in good faith. We fear that clause will put an end to amicable divorces by agreement.

Some important changes are made in the law applicable to real estate. By our old statute a grantee is allowed thirty days to record a deed or mortgage. The last Legislature by a law not included in the code but which takes effect at the same time restricted the time to five days. Under the new code, a scroll will no longer do for a seal in a conveyance of real estate. There must be an impression on paper or wax or a stamp or paper pasted [illegible] to the instrument.—An attachment on real estate, or a judgment takes precedence of a lien of an unrecorded deed or mortgage.

New terrors of law are prepared for faithless swains who secure the affections of unsophisticated maidens. Breach of promise is put on the same footing as all other frauds, and the unlucky defendant in such an action may be arrested and confined even where his attentions have not exposed the lady to any danger of the latter predicament herself.

That is a merciful provision of the new code which says that, the jury shall not be bored for more than two hours, by all the speeches, on any case, but long winded lawyers find an antidote to the indignity offered them in the provision extending the jurisdiction of Justices Courts to two hundred and fifty dollars, thus giving them double fees in numberless small suits.

The County Court is deprived of its equity jurisdiction in cases by and against executors and administrators, and deprived of all jurisdiction of suits where the amount in controversy exceeds five hundred dollars but as a compensation is invested with exclusive jurisdiction in cases of forcible entry and detainer, and it is further invested with the dignity of a Court of Record by being provided with a jury of twelve men, to be duly drawn and summoned for each term thereof.

Following the Statutes of most of the Eastern States, necessary provision is made for a new class of litigation as follows "When the death of a person is caused by the wrongful act or omission of another, the personal representatives of the former may maintain an action at law therefor against the latter if the former might have maintained an action, had he lived for an injury caused by the same act or omission. Such an action shall be commenced within two years after the death, and the damages therein shall not exceed five thousand dollars, and the amount recovered, if any, shall be administered as other personal property of the deceased person."

Offices and office hours are specified for clerks, sheriffs and other public officers. Each Court is required to audit its own expenses before the counties are authorized to pay them. Attorneys must be citizens of the State, and must be admitted to practice by the Supreme Court, and may be expelled from the bar by the same tribunal for misconduct. A much needed provision is made for perpetuating testimony where no suit is pending.

The changes we have noticed with the exception of the extension of Justices jurisdiction, we believe to be for the better. The code, as a whole, is an improvement on the present law, and we have faith that its practical results will be beneficial to the State.

GEN. SCOTT'S CHARGES AGAINST McCLELLAN. Not long ago a letter was read in Congress from Gen Scott, charging McClellan with refusing to correspond with him as General in Chief in 1861. A recent letter in the Tribune says "that this course was not pursued till some time after it had been discovered by Gen McClellan that Gen Scott's office was not the safest place for him to expose his plans or make known what he was doing. It is known that Gen McClellan's plans had been several times in a very mysterious way made known to the rebels almost as quickly as they were to our commanders in the field. Gen McClellan found out the individual, it was Gen Scott's son-in-law, Henry L Scott who was with Gen Scott in Washington as an Inspector General with the rank, pay, etc, of a Colonel of Cavalry. General McClellan went to the President about the extraordinary denouement, and Colonel Scott and Adjutant General Thomas, who was also suspected of treachery, were summoned to the White House to be confronted on the charge. Colonel Scott confessed his guilt! What was done? Why Colonel Scott, instead of being shot for his treason, was allowed to be placed on the retired list for life, and to receive the pay and emoluments of a Lieutenant Colonel of Cavalry! He immediately went to Europe where he is doing all he can for secession. General Scott did not publish anything. He knows the reason why General McClellan did not report his plans and General Scott will not stir up a matter that would be of no advantage to one of his family who is a traitor living upon a Government which he basely betrays."

The Tribune asks

"Can it be true that our Government allowed a detected traitor—one who had betrayed a position of the very highest trust—to be placed on the retired list, and go to Europe on pay as still an officer of our army? If it did, who can wonder that treason is rife in our service and that gunboats and ships of war are betrayed into the hands of our enemies?"

GEN BUTLER.—Butler made a speech at Baltimore, recently, in which he said

"The nation is but in its infancy. The giant of the western world has scarcely begun to put forth its strength. These throes and agonies are but the pains of teething, and when his teeth are cut fairly through let traitors beware, and tyrants stand back everywhere."

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to April 9th!

NEW YORK, April 8.—Gold this morning, 146.

CAIRO April 8.—A letter from Young's Point says that on Tuesday evening the 29th Illinois regiment marched from Milliken's Bend to Willow Bayou [illegible] three or four miles [illegible] thence through the connecting bayous to Richmond, five miles from here on the Vicksburg and Shreveport railroad where they are now encamped. A small company of rebels occupied the place but fled on the approach of our troops. [illegible] commands the bayous through which our transports will pass if the canal is completed. Its occupation will be permanent.

CINCINNATI April 8.—A letter from an officer in Rosecrans' army states that the enemy in their front has been reinforced, and that their numbers are overwhelming.

PHILADELPHIA April 8.—A private letter dated near Charleston April 1st says: It is reported that Charleston has been evacuated by the women and children. The Federal ironclads have been in the Edisto river nine miles from here for a week. Admiral Dupont will be here to day when, it is said the bombardment will come off. It is said that the army will remain at Port Royal until after the bombardment. I think the report is probable as the rebels had time and opportunity to fortify the land approaches and make them almost impregnable. We have been engaged [illegible] two days in hanging chains [illegible] to protect the machinery.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The Government up to one o'clock to day, has not received any information regarding events at Charleston.

In letters received from officers in the Charleston expedition, written on the eve of the departure of the fleet to attack that city the writers express themselves confident of success and say that such is the general feeling among the officers and men.

NEW YORK April 8.—Gen Foster is at Little Washington with a brigade of North Carolina troops and several others, surrounded by rebels who have erected batteries on the bank between Little Washington and Newbern. A battle is said to have taken place, but nothing definite is known.

NEW YORK, April 9.—We have the following in reference to Gen Foster's position at Little Washington. On the 30th of March, 12,000 rebels under Hill and Pettigrew took position on the north side of the town, and seven regiments were on the south side of the south bank of the Pamlico river. Two companies of the 44th Massachusetts went on a reconnoitre that day, and marched right into an ambush and suffered considerable from a withering fire of musketry at range. Capt Lyons' company of North Carolina troops was also badly cut up—several killed and Capt Lyons wounded. One of our gunboats opened fire on the rebels and scattered them. That night the rebels took up all the buoys in the river and planted batteries in such a position along the bank as to render it almost impossible for vessels to pass. They established themselves on Red Hill two miles from the town completely commanding our works. Next day one of our gunboats got aground and was struck thirty times by the rebel battery, but finally got off. Two transports unsuccessfully attempted to reach Foster, but a small lighter succeeded in reaching him with supplies of ammunition. Hill notified Foster to remove all the women and children, as he intended shelling the town, but up to the 2d it had not been done, as our gunboats had kept the battery engaged. On the 4th more gunboats arrived and others with nine and eleven inch guns were expected on the 5th. General Foster has over 2,000 troops there.

A Newbern letter of the 3d 10 o'clock, P M, states that gunboats had arrived at the mouth of the river, and it was thought they would be able to demolish the rebel battery. Gen Hunter was taking such steps as would lead to the removal of all fears in regard to the safety of Foster.

The rebels are said to have 5,000 men on the road between Newbern and the Little Washington.

HARRISBURG, Pa April 9th.—A majority of the Senatorial investigating committee, to enquire whether unlawful means were employed to secure the election of a U S Senator, reports Gen Cameron guilty of the charges of bribery, preferred against him by Jefferson Boyer member of the Legislature. It is understood that a minority report, signed by Republican members of the committee, will differ materially.

NEW YORK April 9th.—Washington dispatches say that the excitement there in regard to the expected attack on Charleston continues.

SAN FRANCISCO April 10th.—The following persons have been appointed Postmasters.—Levi Kent, Elkton, Umpqua, Wm F Dunbar Port Orford. Commissions have been received for George C [illegible] and [illegible], Seattle, W T. [illegible] offices have been established at [illegible], John Dorsey Postmaster and Chehalis, A F Miller Postmaster.

$1,000 was paid into the Court of Sessions, yesterday as gambling fines.

This morning's Alta contains a card to the effect that Hon F G Phelps will address certain prominent merchants also the [illegible] who opposed his election. It is said that Phelps will not be a candidate for Governor as it would be a needless sacrifice of himself.

Col Hiram Leonard Provost Marshal has been ordered home.

The Republican State Central Committee met this morning at 10 A M. A full committee was present. A motion was made and carried to hold the State Convention on the 17th of June. A reconsideration was moved and at 12 M it was still under discussion.

Greenbacks were bought to day for [illegible] and sold for 68.

UNION PLEDGE.—The following pledge was put in circulation in New York, on the 9th of March.

We the undersigned citizens of the United States, hereby associate ourselves under the name and title of the Loyal National League.

We pledge ourselves to an unconditional loyalty to the Government of the United States to an unwavering support of its efforts to suppress the rebellion, and to spare no endeavor to maintain unimpaired the National Unity both in principle and territorial boundary.

The primary object of this League is and shall be to bind together all loyal men of all trades and professions in a common union to maintain the power, glory and integrity of the Nation.

A TEST.—The Trinity Journal says: Show us the man [illegible] under the name of [illegible] call Union men [illegible] his fault at the means employed [illegible] the rev[illegible] and punish traitors [illegible] eyes in holy horror and [illegible] encroachments [illegible] Constitution, and we will show you a [illegible] in the grass—a wolf in sheep's clothing—an assassin in [illegible] skin—an enemy to his country and one who prefers the destruction of this glorious Union rather than see slavery perish even if it is employed by the rebels to overthrow the Government.

THE OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other paper published in this City.

THE STEAMBOAT RACE.—Our item of yesterday in reference to a steamboat race between the Hunt and the Baker seems to have created a considerable feeling in certain quarters.— We knew nothing of the facts at the time of writing the item, except as reported to us by one we believed a reliable gentleman Nor do we yet know the facts as at least half a dozen different stories have been told us since yesterday morning, by equally as disinterested and, probably, as our first informant was. The friends of the Hunt assert that the Baker was at least fifteen minutes ahead that the Hunt passed the Baker quite easily, without carrying within forty pounds of steam she is capable of bearing, and that the Baker did not get on to a sand bank at all, or if she did it was long after the former had passed her On the other side, it is still asserted that the start was even, that the Baker led the Hunt up the river; that the latter took the start from that place; that the former soon after passed the latter, and would have beaten her had it not been for the sand bank accident. So the stories run, and between them all we are left in doubt, almost as much as we were about the relative speed of two "fast nags" of which our readers are quite familiar We hope, however, that a similar bantering will, in complete a fizzle, will not occur between the friends of these boats as there was with the admirers of blooded stock, but that a genuine, fair and honest race will be run, if the question cannot be decided otherwise, and that timely notice shall be given, so that those who desire to witness the sight can; [illegible] let the Leviathan to accompany the racers and see which comes out ahead.

LAID UP.—The steamer Cowlitz has been laid up for the past few days undergoing repairs, and the Express, Capt Strang, is making regular daily trips to Monticello, carrying the mail, in place of the Cowlitz A recent trip to Monticello convinced us that under the management of the gentlemanly officers of the [illegible] passengers have no grounds of complaint, although it has been occasionally hinted that a partnership existed between the [illegible] and the hotel-keeper at Monticello, which we believe to be ill-founded; but if such is the case, still no one should complain, as a better [illegible] to stop at is seldom found on any route, moderately cheap for adults, tho' dear for children. The route from Monticello to Olympia is beyond all description [illegible] most tiresome, less provided with common and reasonable accommodations for travel, and over horrible roads, the like of which does not probably exist else where on the surface (or forty feet below) of the earth. We sincerely pity the unfortunate man, woman or child who has to go over that worse than miserable route

UNION CONVENTION IN WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—We publish, this morning, the [illegible] of some of the loyal citizens of Washington Territory, to a convention of [illegible] to be held on the 25th of May, at [illegible], for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Delegate to Congress The call is in the true spirit, and we trust it will meet with a clear and cordial response from all in the Territory, who love the Union and its triumph.

[illegible] KNIGHTS.—The Sable Knights post[poned] their performance last night, in consequence of the rain, and will not perform until [illegible] night. They give better satisfaction in their line than any company that has ever [illegible] this city, as every one will say who [has seen] them. We would advise all those who wish to have a good laugh and see an [illegible] performance, to be on hand Saturday night.

THE INS.—The new City Council of Portland is to meet this evening, and commence [their] labors for the public good If there is any truth in the old adage "a new broom sweeps clean," we shall hope soon to see it [illegible] upon our streets, instead of the city [illegible], as heretofore.

P. T. CO.'S STEAMERS. — The People's Transportation Co. advertise their line to-day.

REMARKABLE WORKS OF HUMAN LABOR.—[Nineveh] was 14 miles long, 8 wide, and 40 miles round, with a wall 100 feet high, and thick enough for three chariots abreast Babylon was 50 miles within the walls which were 75 feet thick, and 100 high, with 100 brazen gates. The Temple of Diana at Ephesus was 420 feet to the support of the roof. It was 100 years in building The largest of the pyramids was 481 feet high, and 653 feet on the sides, the base covers 11 acres, The stones are about 60 feet in length, and the layers are 208 It employed 350,000 men in building. The labyrinth in Egypt contains 300 chambers and 12 halls Thebes, in Egypt, presents ruins 27 miles round, and 100 gates. Carthage was 20 miles round Athens was 25 miles round, and contained 350,000 citizens and 400,000 slaves The Temple of Delphos was so rich in donations that it was plundered of $50,000,000 and Nero carried away from it 200 statues The walls of Rome were 13 miles round

THE RICH SILVER AND COPPER MINES OF ARIZONA.—Arizona, just organized as a Territory, contains 120,000 square miles, and is therefore larger than three States of the size of Ohio. It is said by those who have spent [many] years there that it contains more and [richer] silver and copper mines than any Territory under the Government Gold is also found in many parts of the Territory His [illegible] Indians have heretofore prevented extensive operations in the mines but with a Government such as is about to be established they will be fully developed It is asserted by persons who have opportunities to form a [correct] judgment, that the richest silver mines of the world are found in Arizona There are 1,500 troops now there, and it is probable that the number will be soon largely increased

Humors of Prince John

The irresistible humor of John Van Buren, which made his name a household word in 1848, seems to be returning to him with returning devotion to liberty and country. His speech at the great Union meeting in the Cooper Institute, New York, on the evening of 6th March, was almost as remarkable for its characteristic drolleries of expression as for its noble declarations of support of the Government in the war to the bitter end. It was full of such quiet things as this:

I very often meet men who tell me that the people want this or that. Well, I say I guess not. I am one of the people. I don't want it—and how do you get at the result? The only way I know of to determine what the people want, is to make up your mind what you want yourself, and then infer, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that other people want it. [Prolonged laughter.]

And this:

The Emperor of the French will do exactly as he thinks is entirely for his own interest.

The following statement of Democratic ups and downs is in his best style:

The Democratic party, as you all know, nine years out of ten, controls the government of the country. It requires, therefore, no great patriotism on their part to be attached to the Government and the country. It is, in fact, an attachment to themselves. [Laughter.] As a general rule, they are wise, prudent and patriotic. Occasionally blind guides or bad drivers take some sleepy passengers into bad roads and upset them, as they did in 1848. [Laughter.] But then they wake up, the passengers get out, [laughter] they inquire the right road, they get a lantern and eventually they come all right. [Laughter.] I think they will do so now, and yet it seemed to me, as a careful man, looking at their course, just at this moment, that it was prudent for me to get out and walk. [Great laughter and three cheers.]

In his palmiest days and moods we think he never hit upon anything happier than this portraiture of Brooks:

I have been cautioned by a great many people about attending this meeting to-night. I was told that it was an insidious attempt to disintegrate the Democratic party, and a newspaper which joined us last Fall [laughter,] and my representative in Congress, who never joined us at all, have great fear that I will do something to disintegrate the Democratic party. My representative I have a very high opinion of. He seems to be very willing to represent the whole of our State and a considerable part of New Jersey [laughter] and looking at his paper this evening, I perceive that he has taken charge of the Governments of Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois, and several other States. It is not often that a man is favored with being provided with such extensive plans of usefulness. I read a speech that he made before the Democratic Union Association on the 3d of M[illegible], as it was reported in The World on the 4th. Without undertaking to say what was proper for him to say or for him to omit, I will say that I thank God that he was not my representative until noon the next day. [Great and long-continued laughter and applause.]

But Prince John must take heed what he says or he will not escape the condemnation of his Democratic friends. His closing words were:

With our immense population and resources we ought to end this war in ninety days.—Start your troops in New Orleans, at Vicksburg, at Fredericksburg, at Charleston, and in Tennessee. Charge along the whole line—advance with energy and with union, and my word for it, in ninety days everybody will wonder that this rebellion was ever regarded as formidable in any portion of the United States. [Prolonged cheers.]

THE MURFREESBORO' BATTLE.—The following anecdotes are told by a correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, writing of the incidents of the above named battle.

Col. Granville Moody, of the 74th Ohio, is a famous Methodist preacher from Cincinnati. He is something over fifty, I "reckon"—six feet two or three inches, of imposing presence, with a fine, genial face and prodigious vocal range. The reverend Colonel, who proved himself a fighting parson of the first water, was hit four times, and will carry the signature of battle when he goes back to the altar. His benevolence justifies his military flock in the indulgence of sly humor at his expense, but he never permits them to disturb his equanimity. Several battle anecdotes of him are well authenticated.

You probably know that our Western Circuit preachers are Stentors. Where other parsons are emphatic, they roar in the fervor of exhortation, especially when they bulge upon you with a big "Amen." You must imagine this fact to appreciate the story. The Colonel's mind was saturated with piety and fight. He had already had one bout with the rebels, and did give them "Hail Columbia!" They were renewing the attack. The Colonel braced himself for the shock. Seeing his line in fine order, he thought he would exhort them briefly. The rebels were coming swiftly. Glancing first at the foe, then at the lads, he said quietly, "Now, my boys fight for your country and your God," and raising his voice to thunder tones, he bellowed in the same breath, "AIM LOW!" Says one of his gallant fellows, I fancied for an instant that it was a frenzied ejaculation from the profoundest depths of the "Amen Corner." Any day now you may hear the lads of the 74th roaring, "Fight for your country and your God—aim low!"

The General Commanding displayed a distressing faculty for keeping in hot places. After several casualties in the staff, and while missiles were flying about promiscuously, one of his aids modestly asked him: "Do you think it right to expose your life so, Sir?" He replied by dashing into a hotter place to correct alignment and regulate a battery that was firing rather recklessly. He was suddenly checked by a regiment drawn across the field. The men were prone on their bellies, and several rebel batteries were flinging shot and shell all around them. Although a fine talker, he is not a finished orator, but he jerks out sentences that are not easily misunderstood. The battle field, the orator, the audience, presented a singular spectacle. When the General addressed the men, each elevated his head from the ground, turning his face toward the commander. "Men," said he, "do you want to know how to be safe? If you do shoot low! Fire at their shins. Do you want to know how to be safest of all? I'll tell you. Give them a blizzard right at their shins at short range, and then let them have the bayonet, I say!" The troops think a "blizzard" at short range a very good thing.

NEGRO SOLDIERS.—The following is an extract from a letter received by a gentleman well known in this State from his brother, now at Hilton Head (S. C.) which we have been permitted to copy:

I rather like General Hunter. [illegible] negro question is all right, in my opinion. I [illegible] like the [illegible]—I have certain knowledge and in time will make good soldiers. I tell you they [illegible] too much service to the rebels, building their batteries, raising their corn, keeping them (the rebels) alive while they fight. They have 1,000 at work on their fortifications on the Savannah river. The niggers are their lives, understanding it. Let us take what we have of them and make them "hewers of wood and drawers of water," and if necessary let them fight, better that they be put into the ditches and at the mouth of the cannon than you or I. I am no abolitionist, but here we learned their great service to the enemy, and I want them to work for us instead of them, or that we may derive the same benefit from them that they do.—Marysville Appeal.

LEGAL

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all nett profits (less $600) derived from any source whatever. A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes, hired help, Rents, Drayage, &c., necessary to carry on his business; but no farmer, merchant, mechanic, or any person has a right to deduct his own labor as so much expense from his income.

The Income Tax is due April 1st, and is on the income of the year commencing January 1st, 1862, so that on the evening of December 31st, 1862, everybody shall make up a record of their income gains or profits for that year. And as many sources of income, such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks, Insurance Stock, Savings Banks, interest, &c. (they having directly paid the income tax) are not again taxed, it therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income, that it may be [illegible] with the Assessor.

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends.

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of his business for the year, and pay the tax on the amount less $600.

A man may, outside of his business, spend all and even more than his profits in the business; nevertheless he must pay tax on all nett business profits except the $600. And so with a salary; all over $600 must be taxed, the [illegible] personal or family expenses consuming it all.

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May 1863, and is due and payable on or before the 30th June 1863. And any sums due and unpaid for thirty days after the 30th June [illegible], and for ten days after demand by the Collector, five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid.

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately.

DEMOCRATIC STATE JOURNAL.

The JOURNAL will be devoted to the interest, the principles and augmentation of the Democratic organization upon the basis of the State and National platforms of that party, upon which the late glorious victories in the great States of New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and New Jersey were achieved, and for which such noble and patriotic statesmen as Seymour and Richardson are the champions and defenders. It shall be the aim of the JOURNAL and the Democratic party unswervingly by speaking the truth and discussing public measures freely, fully and fearlessly, without hope or expectation of favor or reward other than the proud satisfaction of doing the duty of an American Citizen.

Due and ample attention will be paid to the mining interest, by chronicling all information of the varied operations in the extensive and gradually developing gold fields East of the Cascade Mountains. To secure early, full and reliable intelligence upon this important branch, [illegible] arrangements have been perfected which will secure to the JOURNAL authentic and regular correspondence from all the different localities attracting public attention. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, Mass., 20th Dec. 1855.

Dr. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints.
EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you invented it and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, Miss., Feb. 7, 1856.

BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill and commend your medicine to our people.
HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, IA., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, Pa., Feb. 4, 1856.

SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.
HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE CO., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.
Yours, with gratitude and regard,
ORLANDO SHELBY, OF SHELBYVILLE.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all round us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use, and certificates of their cures of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.
